2019 Wells Book Arts Summer Institute Scholarship & Internship Application

The Summer Institute, held each July by the Book Arts Center at Wells College, offers participants the opportunity to meet and work with renowned book artists from across the nation. This year we will have two sessions of week-long classes in different areas of the Book Arts.

Internships

We have non-paid internships for the full two weeks. Interns assist in preparations for the Summer Institute, and as time permits, attend one class each week as a participant/assistant to the instructor.

Room, Board, & Tuition are provided for interns. Travel costs are the responsibility of each intern.

Scholarships

We have a limited amount of money for need-based scholarships available for undergraduate and graduate students, as well as for recent grads, in the Book Arts. Depending on the number of applicants and amount requested, full or partial scholarships may be offered to applicants for one week.

Week 1 — July 14–20

- Sarah Bryant – The Long Stitch: Form, Function, Experimentation
- Stephanie Carpenter – Letterpress Basics and More
- Kyle Holland – Creative Papermaking Processes: Positive & Negative Stenciling
- Rob LoMascolo – Polymer Printing on the Heidelberg
- Scott Moore – New Wood Type Production using historic methods & modern machines
- Joanne Price – Wood Engraving: Historic Letterpress Illustration

Week 2 — July 21–27

- Michael & Winnie Bixler – Monotype Type Casting
- Nancy Callahan – Book that Expand and Contract
- Patrick Griffin – Digital Font Making: A Crash Course for the Ravers
- Radha Pandey – Japanese Paper-making and Natural Dyeing
- Steve Pittelkow – Paper Marbling and Cartonnage: Beyond Square and Rectangle
- Brad Vetter – Lasers & Letterpress

Week 3 — July 28–Aug 3

Residency option available for participants of the previous 2 weeks – details TBA

Cost: Room + nominal material fee (no scholarship available for this week)
